

Reactivate is an EU job mobility scheme for jobseekers over the age of 35.

The scheme's services benefit employers and jobseekers alike: it helps employers to recruit for their vacancies, matching them with motivated and activated jobseekers across Europe and it helps jobseekers to find jobs, traineeships or apprenticeships with an employer in a different EU country.

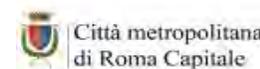

Reactivate provides a set of services:

- ✓ information
- ✓ recruitment and matching
- ✓ one-to-one pre and post placement support
- ✓ financial support to jobseekers for an interview trip abroad, language training, recognition of qualifications and relocation expenses (also for the family members)
- ✓ financial support to SMEs to cover some training and integration costs.

Reactivate services are free of charge and tailor-made to employers and jobseekers needs.

Reactivate is co-funded by the European Union within the "EaSi 2014-2020" Programme and it is coordinated by the Metropolitan City of Rome (Italy).
